6TH DISTRICT COMMUNITY PROSECUTION UPDATE

Operation Fightback. The Sixth District Metropolitan Police Department sponsored an Operation Fightback in PSA 601 in the 4800 and 4900 blocks of Quarles Street on February 20, 2003 from 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. Assistant U.S. Attorney Dawn Kelly Mobley and Community Outreach Specialist Brenda Horner joined Ward 7 Neighborhood Services Coordinator Rose Money and the Ward 7 Core Team in a joint effort to address public safety and quality of life issues. The Core Team met with residents of 4800 blk of Quarles Street as they toured the apartment buildings, documenting signs of drug activity, rat harborage, illegal dumping and found that less than half of the apartments in one building are filled. MPD conducted roadblocks in the area, DCRA conducted building inspections, the Department of Public Works towed 18 abandoned vehicles and removed over 25.9 tons of trash from the streets, the sewers and vacant lots.

The COURT REPORT

Lawrence Scott, age 25, was convicted of killing two brothers on May 6, 2002 in the 200 block 55th Street, N.E. (PSA 603; Case Number F4385-02)

On January 31, 2004, a D.C. Superior Court jury convicted Lawrence “Face” Scott, 25, formerly of Landover, Maryland, of two counts of first-degree premeditated murder while armed and two counts of possession of a firearm during the commission of a crime of violence for the May 6, 2002, murders of Jabari Carpenter, 27, of Landover, MD, and his half-brother, Brian Tinner, 22, of Suitland, MD. Scott faces a mandatory minimum sentence of thirty years in prison and maximum of 150 years for his conviction. He will be sentenced by the Honorable Robert I. Richter on March 25, 2004.

The government’s evidence showed that during the afternoon of May 6, 2002, the defendant and his friends, including the decedents, were playing a video game at the home of Jabari Carpenter’s mother in the 200 block 55th Street, N.E. (PSA 603). With no prior warning, the defendant stood up and starting shooting at the two brothers, Jabari and Brian, who were sitting on the living room couch. The victims were shot multiple times with both .45 caliber and .9mm bullets, suggesting that a second shooter may have joined the defendant in firing at the brothers. The defendant and others then walked out the front door of the house and drove off. Concerned neighbors called the police, who discovered the bodies of both Jabari and Brian on the floor in the living room. The government’s evidence also showed that following the shooting, Scott devised a plan to blame the shooting on a friend, who was incarcerated in Maryland, pending trial for murder.

AUSA’s Amanda Haines, Colleen Covell, and Jonathan Malis prosecuted the case.

Sheryl Hatcher pleads guilty to Unlawful Entry, Destruction of Property, and Second-Degree Theft (PSA 605; Case Number F-6326-03)

On December 30, 2003, Sheryl Hatcher (aka Debra Camelaler) of Washington, D.C., pled guilty to unlawful entry, destruction of property, and second-degree theft. The government’s investigation revealed that, on or about October 10, 2003, the defendant, a former caretaker of the complainant, broke into the latter’s home, took his car keys, and stole the complainant’s car. A witness reported the break-in and theft to the police, and provided them with information about the defendant’s last known direction of travel. Thereafter, an officer observed the complainant’s car in the rear parking area of 5035 Central Avenue, SE. The defendant was sitting in the vehicle. The keys were in the ignition, and the vehicle was running. The defendant was placed under arrest, and a search incident to arrest revealed a check book belonging to the complainant inside of the defendant’s purse. After the defendant had been placed under arrest, the complainant positively identified his car, and identified the defendant as his former caretaker. Further investigation revealed that the defendant had stolen from the complainant on three prior occasions. Hatcher will be sentenced on February 19, 2004, by Judge John H. Bayly, Jr. AUSA Ellen Chubin prosecuted the case.

Mark Washington pleads guilty to Assault from incident in the 4700 block of Quarles Street, NE (PSA 601; Case Number F-7836-03)

On January 23, 2004, Mark A. Washington, of Washington, D.C., pled guilty to assault for resisting lawful arrest by a uniformed officer of the Metropolitan Police Department on November 22, 2003. The government's investigation revealed that on or about November 22, 2003, at approximately 12:10 a.m., Officer Michael Architzel was patrolling the 4700 block of Quarles Street, N.E., Washington, D.C. The officer was in full uniform and driving in a marked scout car. As the officer approached Dodge Caravan that was parked in the street, he noticed that the steering column of the van was broken. The defendant was sitting in the driver seat, and when he noticed Officer Architzel, he attempted to exit the van and flee. Officer Architzel ordered the defendant to stop, but the defendant continued to flee until Officer Architzel caught up with him. At that point, a violent struggle ensued, and the defendant eventually got away. Officer Architzel was able to identify the defendant from a photo array, and he was subsequently arrested and charged with assaulting the officer. Washington will be sentenced on March 18, 2004, by Judge Lynn Leibovitz.

AUSA Ellen Chubin prosecuted the case.

District Man Pleads Guilty to Attempted Aggravated Assault and Destruction of Property for June 2003 incident in the 3900 block of Minnesota Avenue, NE (PSA 604; Case Number F-4043-03)

On February 6, 2004, Geoffrey E. Jackson of Washington, DC, pled guilty to attempted aggravated assault and destruction of property. The government's investigation revealed that on or about June 30, 2003, at approximately 8:30 pm, members of the Metropolitan Police Department received a radio run for a vehicle on fire in a parking lot located in the 3900 block of Minnesota Avenue, N.E. Upon arrival on the scene, officers observed a 1991 Ford Taurus station wagon engulfed in flames. Officers were met by the complainant (and owner of the vehicle), who was suffering from second degree burns to the back of his head as well as to the right arm. DC Fire Department emergency personnel responded to the scene and extinguished the fire. The complainant was subsequently taken to the hospital for treatment.

The complainant was interviewed by police, and reported that while he was working in the area, he was approached by a homeless man (the defendant), known to the complainant as "Geoffrey". A dispute over money escalated to an argument, during which the defendant threatened to "assassinate" the complainant. Thereafter, the defendant doused the complainant's car with gasoline, and ignited it while the complainant was still inside the vehicle. The complainant suffered second degree burns to the back of his head and his right arm. Jackson will be sentenced on March 30, 2004, by Judge Susan H. Winfield.

AUSA Ellen Chubin prosecuted the case.
